

DRAGONFLIES

D

Dragonflies are aquatic insects that live in marshes, lakes, creeks and rivers. They are eaten by fish, both as nymphs (young dragonflies) which live underwater and as adults which spend most of their time in the air.