

EEL

Eels have long, slender bodies with a continuous fin that consists of united dorsal, caudal, and anal fins. The young eels are leaf-like in shape and are called leptocephalous larvae. Most eels live in fresh water and spawn in the ocean.

E